

Grow Your HB352 Knowledge With Us

The Reading League Montana

While Montana's House Bill 352 has brought great opportunities for how we educate some of our youngest learners, how we create space for these opportunities looks different in each community. Come learn with leaders and educators who have taken steps towards finding pathways we can all follow.

Learn

From Leaders who know the way and are willing to show the way so others can build strong early literacy learning experiences.

 Register Here!

 info@mt.thereadingleague.org

Join Local Educational
Leaders ready to help you find your best path forward

April 5 at 12:30pm – Creating and sustaining an early learning program that aligns with HB 352

Montana Voices from the field:

Casey Bertram, Superintendent, Bozeman – Megan Roth, Early Learning TOSA, Bozeman – Anne Penn Cox, Principal, Livingston – Colette Getten, Principal, Great Falls

In this session we'll talk with leaders addressing the creation of an early learning program aligned with HB 352 while also considering sustainability. This includes considerations for how the program is being funded, how screening is done, what is being taught, who may be teaching the classes and many more important questions.

April 11 at 11:00am – Building an inclusive early learning model for all our students and aligned with HB 352

Montana Voices from the field:

Nora Barney – Director of Special Education, Anaconda – Marcia Stolfus – Director of Flathead Special Education Cooperative – Maria Pace – Director, Prickly Pear Cooperative – In this session we'll address how all students, including those needing special services or who are on IEPs are supported through early learning environments and aligned with HB352.

April 29 at 11:00am – Creating alliances that build strong early learning communities (public and private)

Montana Organization Zero to Five Montana

A statewide early childhood organization focused on increasing access to early care and education, supporting and strengthening families, uplifting voices, and empowering small businesses and communities. We are nonpartisan and focused on solutions that work toward a Montana dedicated to every child.

Register Here!

info@mt.thereadingleague.org